

Sums of Two Cubes as Twisted Perfect Powers

Michael Bennett, University of British Columbia (Canada).

Coauthors: Carmen Bruni and Nuno Freitas.

We discuss the problem of representing a sum of two integer cubes as a prime power multiplied by an arbitrary perfect power. Our results use a new criteria for distinguishing symplectic Galois representations, together with a variety of Frey-curve arguments